Biography

With over 37 years in the A/E/C industry, Mr. Huffstetter serves as SAME President-Elect on the National Leadership Team and leads all Federal Programs for DLR Group, a proud SAME corporate member since 1987 and an award-winning international planning, architecture-engineering firm established in 1966. Mr. Huffstetter's professional experience includes a combination of end-user, project delivery, and project execution experience. As a military end-user, he served as an Air Force Civil Engineering Officer and Project Engineer driving requirements in multiple base-level CE assignments. His government delivery experience was centered around two successive USAF Officer Exchange Program assignments managing projects within the US Army Corps of Engineers, first with the USACE Transatlantic Division and later with the USACE Baltimore District supporting both CONUS and OCONUS MILCON and contingency operations programs. His project execution experience began in 1995 with multiple private sector roles including 9 years as a project manager in the commercial aviation sector working on capital improvement programs at Washington-Reagan, Washington Dulles, Atlanta-Hartsfield, and Miami-Dade airports. This was followed internationally by expanded PM and Operational responsibilities on projects across the middle east and North Africa before returning to

General Session: Welcome Remarks & Keynote Address - 1 PDH

The 2025 Indo-Pacific Regional Summit will get underway with remarks from SAME National President Mike Huffstetler, F.SAME, and then hear from the Governor of Hawaii Josh Green, MD. As a physician and politician, Green has been committed to supporting the underserved, having come to Hawaii after having been awarded a National Health Service Corps scholarship and choosing to serve the community of Ka'u. He began his political career in the Hawaii State House of Representatives (2004-2008) and later served in the State Senate (2008-2018). Green was elected governor in 2022.
